

NOW IT IS ALL OVER.

The Guests Gave the President a Parting Handshake.

THE NEW CABINET IS NAMED.

Stepping into the Shoes of Their Predecessors Is the Work of To-day in Official Life.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The white house was the center of attraction nearly all of today, the thousands of visitors in the city made it a visit. Business is practically at a standstill in all the departments pending a change of official heads. Sight-seers streamed through the corridors and kept the clerks busy answering questions.

ENTERTAINING FRIENDS.

President Harrison came down shortly after 10 o'clock, took his station in the east room and began the ordeal of shaking hands with the crowd as it passed before him. This has been in progress several hours already, and still continues.

SHAKEN BY THOUGHTS.

The president continued the reception up to 11:30 o'clock, took his station in the east room and began the ordeal of shaking hands with the crowd as it passed before him. This has been in progress several hours already, and still continues.

Secretary Blaine came in with the rest of the crowd and stopped for a short chat with the president. He was recognized by the waiting throng and as he left the house was given quite an ovation.

Another conspicuous visitor was Representative Randall, who called with the Pennsylvania organizations. General Barlow, of New York, and staff, and Governor Hays and staff were also among the visitors.

At 11:30 o'clock the grounds were still thronged. The reception was closed for the day and those in waiting were informed that as it was impossible for the president to shake hands with all of them he would come out on the porch and review them as they passed along.

THEIR HE BOWED.

This announcement was well received and the crowd formed in line and marched across the portico, while the president stood in the doorway bowing his acknowledgments of their salutations.

Several organizations were in the line thus reviewed. The companies of the Pennsylvania militia that have been quartered in the state, war and navy department buildings, went away with a high appreciation of the kindness of Secretary Whitney who had given orders that they were to be supplied with abundance of hotel food during their stay.

The bill which the secretary received for this single item of refreshment amounted to $800.

Secretary Whitney took official leave of the officers and employees of the navy department this afternoon, and at the same time took occasion to say a few pleasant words in regard to his co-laborer.

Person's Congratulations.
WASHINGTON, March 5.—A cable message was received at the state department today from the United States minister to Persia conveying the Shah's congratulations to President Harrison. The message was submitted to the president, who requested Secretary Bayard to make a suitable reply.

The following telegram was sent to the minister in the afternoon:
"The president highly appreciates and cordially reciprocates the kind expressions of the Shah."
(Signed) BAYARD."

All But Wanny.
WASHINGTON, March 5.—All the members of President Harrison's cabinet are in the city, with the exception of Postmaster General Wadsworth and Secretary Rusk, who will, however, be here tomorrow.

All the members of ex-President Cleveland's cabinet tendered their resignation to President Harrison yesterday, and he accepted them today, to take effect upon the qualification of their successors.

Assistant Secretary Rives, of the state department, has tendered his resignation, to take effect at once.

SENATE.
WASHINGTON, March 5.—President Harrison, today, sent to the senate the following nominations: For secretary of state, James G. Blaine, of Maine; for secretary of the treasury, William Windom, of Minnesota; for secretary of war, Reuben Spross, of Vermont; for secretary of the navy, Benjamin F. Tracy, of New York; for secretary of the interior, John W. Noble, of Missouri; for postmaster-general, John Wadsworth, of Pennsylvania; for attorney-general, W. H. Miller, of Indiana; for secretary of agriculture, Jeremiah Rusk, of Wisconsin.

The Proceedings.
WASHINGTON, March 5.—The senate was crowded at the opening of the session this morning. Vice President Mason took a round of applause as he entered and took the presiding officer's chair. The committee to notify the president of the extra session reported that the president would communicate with the senate in writing shortly.

Senator Cookin offered a resolution for the committee to inquire into the causes of delay in the transaction of business in the executive departments.

Senator Stewart offered a resolution declaring it the sense of the senate that the business interests of the country require the purchase of $4,000,000 worth of silver bullion per month for coinage.

Both resolutions were laid over as beyond the authority of the session.

WASHINGTON SEATED.
Cordials of Senator Marston appointed by the governor of New Hampshire, owing to failure of the legislature to elect, as a successor to Senator Chandler, was presented. Senator Vest and Harris made the point that they believed such appointment unconstitutional, but they did not oppose the seating of Marston in view of the fact that the senate had already made two precedents in such cases. Marston was there fore sworn in.

CONFIRMED THE CABINET.
One of the president's secretaries handed the presiding officer a message from the president, being the cabinet appointments. The senate then went into executive session and confirmed the appointments.

A SHORT SESSION EXPECTED.
The democratic senators held a conference this morning on business to come before the senate. No definite conclusion was reached, but the sentiment of the members is against permitting the consideration of legislative business.

The republican senators, it is stated, will not attempt to do anything but executive business. A two-week session at most is expected.

State of the Weather.
Chicago, March 5.—Temperature at 3 o'clock this morning: New York, 40; Chicago, 32; St. Paul, 35; Winnipeg, 22; New Orleans, 32.

The Ends Ship Railway.
Pittsburgh, March 5.—Colonel Andrews, of the Ends ship railway, has received the resignation of Hon. William Winchom.

Almost a Panic.
PARIS, March 5.—The sudden death of Benoit Kocher caused a temporary panic on the Bourse today. Knowledge that his company—the Comptoir d'Escompte—was heavily involved with the Société Des Moteurs in copper speculations created a scare that extended to other financial institutions.

The directors took immediate action to correct the rumors current by issuing an announcement that Kocher suffered no reverses, his private fortune being in fact.

Their declaration did not extend to any statement as to how the Comptoir d'Escompte and allied financial houses, were affected by the copper collapse. A wild fluctuation marked metal shares from noon until the close.

A German Paper Seized.
BERLIN, March 5.—The Bremer Volks Zeitung has been seized for having published an attack upon Bismarck. The police profited by the occasion to make a general search of the offices of the paper.

The directors protested against this attack and applied to the court. The court supported the police. The newspapers of the various parties including the Cologne Gazette, approved of the protest of the Volks Zeitung.

FAILED TO DIVY.
A Big Salt Growing Out of a Heavy Grab Stake.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, March 5.—A message received tonight announces a decision in the case of Peter L. Kimberly against Charles D. Arms and others residing here.

The United States supreme court today rendered its decision in favor of the plaintiff. The amount involved in the suit is $1,300,000. Kimberly claimed in substance that he had sent Arms as his agent to Arizona on a prospecting tour and furnished the necessary funds. That Arms located a number of valuable claims, which have since paid heavy dividends, and that he refused to make any accounting to him for any of the transactions.

Arms denied that he was the agent of Kimberly, and claimed that whatever investments he made were with his own funds, and that Kimberly had no interest in them. Arms is in affluent circumstances, and recently completed the finest residence in the city, costing over $100,000.

NOT MUCH PLEASED.
German Newspapers Give an Opinion of the Message.

BERLIN, March 5.—Except in the Tageblatt and Vossische Zeitung, the papers reserve their opinions on President Harrison's inaugural address. The Tageblatt says the address shows an arrogant spirit and does not display a particularly friendly feeling toward other powers.

The Vossische Zeitung says: "Friends of America hoped for more friendly disposition from Harrison than from Cleveland. The message hardly strengthens that hope. Referring to American claims and interests as if necessarily supreme, which other nations will not be inclined to recognize."

"These criticisms arise from the ill-informed expectation that the message would contain some deliverance on the Samoa dispute which would indicate the intention of the new government to reverse Bayard's policy in a direction that would meet Germany's desires."

Publicke Nachrichten speaks of Harrison's declaration in every way calculated to inspire confidence in a speedy and successful settlement, the recall of Captain Leary already indicating that another and healthier breeze has begun to blow in Washington.

Private Secretary Halford et al.
WASHINGTON, March 5.—Elijah W. Halford took the oath of office as the president's private secretary last night, and formally assumed his duties this morning.

Captain E. S. Denmore, appointed on the clerical force, was assigned to duty in charge of the lower floor.

E. N. Tibbitt and Miss Alice B. Sanger, of Indianapolis, were appointed to the most approved labor-saving and economical inventions.

Who's Afraid?
BISMARCK, Dak., March 5.—Forty-five members of the legislature telegraphed President Harrison, asking him to remove Governor Church, and to appoint Secretary McCormack, acting governor, the object being to shut off any more votes on the part of Church.

Best of All
Tough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does as well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in return of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Haute, Ind.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy."

For Home Use.
I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Elderly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.
